

THE RED CROSS

RICHARD BUCKNER ALLEN

In the poppy fields of Flanders and the Vales of Picardy,
With "a glory in their bosoms," there they toil for you and me;
In that seething hell of ruin, there they die for liberty.

'Mid the horrid din of carnage; 'mid the wreck and chaos there;
In that awful storm of missiles; in the reek of poisoned air;
Stand the "Angels of the Red Cross," who will die to do and dare.

Oh, the wailing of the mothers! oh, the tears for those who die!
Oh, the sobbing of the sweethearts of those of them that lie,
'Neath the poppy field of Flanders—Suppose 'twere you or I?

'Mid the roaring of the cannon, and the crash of hurtling shell,
And the shrieking of the bullets like the wail of souls in hell—
To the questing of our bugles comes the answer, "All is well."

When the golden sun of Flanders and the moon of Picardy
Light the bloody fields of battle from Montdidier to the sea,
They are doing deeds of mercy for a son of you or me.

When our bugles call the reveille for the living and the dead;
When the glory of our victory forms a halo 'round each head;
With the banner of our country there will float a Cross of Red.

OPEN FIELD FOR CONTESTANTS IN PRIZE CAMPAIGN

Anyone who tries has unusual opportunity to pick up the automobile or any of the other valuable prizes with a very little effort. Turn your spare time into profit by entering the big prize race without delay. No Losers—Every active candidate wins a prize. Enter your name or that of a friend today.

Scores of people find prosperity and the big prizes in life every day. It is difficult to read a newspaper without learning the story of some enterprising man or woman who has listened to the call of opportunity—and won out big.

And so it is with newspaper campaigns such as The Advocate is now conducting. Hundreds of people have found prosperity in such campaigns all over the country—and SO CAN YOU.

They are all people just like you, who were listening when opportunity knocked. They opened the door—and found wonderful happiness. What was offered them is here offered to YOU. Of course, there is a little work necessary but anyone of them will tell you how well repaid that work is.

It is here for you, just as they found theirs. You want the things that bring happiness and you can have them too. WILL YOU? All that is necessary to make up your mind to have them—AND TAKE THEM.

The Advocate's Big Prize Campaign points the way to your opportunity, your happiness and your prosperity. Come in and talk the matter over with the Campaign Manager. He will be glad to explain the campaign in detail—and show you how to direct your efforts, so you may secure the prize you desire.

Or if it is inconvenient to call, simply fill in the nomination blank and send it to the Campaign Manager. Supplies and instructions will then be sent you and then you can start your race for your share of the valuable prizes. It's worth doing—a hundred times worth doing. Will you take advantage of this wonderful opportunity.

Understand there is no chance for you to lose. There are ten regular prizes including an automobile, a $150.00 Library Suite, Rings and Chests of Silverware.

In addition to these splendid premiums, there will be as many cash prizes as there are active workers, so that every person who makes an active race wins some prize.

You want YOUR PRIZE—an automobile, perhaps, or one of the other, costly prizes; you know what happiness it will bring you—you know you can get it for a few weeks spare time effort. Then why not go after it? Why cheat yourself out of something that you might just as well have. Sign the nomination blank today—take the prompt, decisive action, that in itself, helps toward YOUR SUCCESS.

See the big extra vote offer announced today—it offers you an unusual opportunity to gain a lead. It's a worth-while opportunity—you can get enough votes in a short time to win that automobile if you will just get busy.

During the next two weeks, between the dates of May 22 and 8 o'clock, Tuesday night, June 4th, 175,000 EXTRA VOTES will be given FREE on each and every "Club of $15.00 worth of New Subscriptions" turned in for or by a

CAPT. KEESEE BURIED SUNDAY

Capt. Charles F. Keesee, Former Merchant of This City, Dies at Pewee Valley.

Friends here were grieved to learn that Capt. Charles F. Keesee had died at the Old Soldiers' Home at Pewee Valley last Friday night. For many years Capt. Keesee was a merchant of this city by his genial good nature, his ever-ready smile and pleasant salutation made himself one of the best beloved men of our city.

He always looked on the bright side of life and ever happiest when in the company of friends he could relate some funny experience of his army life or tell some joke on a friend. He was a member of the Christian church and a member of the Elks lodge and other fraternal societies.

Funeral services were conducted burial at that place. Services were conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of Paris, assisted by Rev. B. W. Trimble, of this city. He was seventy-six years old at the time of his death. He is survived by no immediate relatives except Mrs. Henry P. Reid, a niece, of this city.

Thus ends the life of another gallant old soldier and gentleman, and truly it can be said of him that the world is a better place for him having lived in it.

REGISTRATION DAY IS SET

Young Men Who Have Reached Age of Twenty-one Must Register For Service.

Provost Marshal General Crowder has sent out instructions to the draft boards all over the United States that Wednesday, June 5th has been designated as the day upon which all men who have reached the age of twenty-one years since June 5, 1917, must register for military service. It is understood that practically every county in the State has completed preparations for doing this work. The registration in this county will be held in the County Court room instead of at the various voting places as before and all men who are subject to registration should remember the date and place of registration.

—W. S. S.—

IS TRAINING FOR OFFICER

Private Dillard Turner, son of Judge and Mrs. C. C. Turner, of Frankfort, formerly of this city, was selected to take the officers training course at Camp Shelby last week. Young Turner passed the mental test with the fifth mark out of 38 men. He is a splendid young fellow and many friends here are confident that he will finish the training and receive a commission. He joined the army before he had reached his majority showing himself to be a real patriot.

—W. S. S.—

TO JOIN MARINES

Mr. Irwin D. Wood, formerly of this city, who has been working in Youngstown, Ohio, has been visiting friends and relatives in this city for the past few days. Mr. Wood, accompanied by Mr. William Pangburn, will leave today for Louisville to take the entrance examination into the United States Marine Corps.

LATER—Word has just been received that both of these young men were accepted.

—W. S. S.—

DO NOT FORGET

Parents are urged not to overlook the fact that this week is the week set apart for the children to be measured and weighed. The government is very much interested in this work and there is no expense of any character attached to same. Mrs. Wolcott, the Community Nurse, will assist in the work and we cannot urge the people too strongly to attend to this matter.

—W. S. S.—

WILL ENFORCE LAW

So many complaints have reached the officers of violations of the stock law in various precincts of the county where same is in force, it is the intention of the Sheriff and his deputies to give especial attention to this subject and all violators of this law will be arrested. Those who do not want to pay a fine had better take up their stock.

—W. S. S.—

The Silken Romance will be given at the Liberty Theatre Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30, May 29th. No admission charged. You are invited. (47-2t) J. D. Hazelrigg & Son.

In answer to an emergency call received last Thursday by the local board thirteen men from this county will leave tomorrow (Wednesday) May 22 for Fort Thomas. They will leave this city at 4:22 p. m. on a special train. Before their departure Col. W. P. Huntington will deliver a lecture to them at the Court House. These men will be credited on the county's quota for the Third National Army although they have to leave before the contingent for Camp Taylor. In selecting these men the board was instructed by the former order, which grants temporary deferment for necessary farming.

Ten men will leave May 28th at 2:40 p. m. for Camp Taylor. This call completes the county's quota of white men in the Second National Army. In this call it was necessary for the board to go back and select the first ten men in order of liability, all of whom had previously been deferred because they were actually engaged in farming. It is not known why the distinction was made in the two calls, but the board wishes it understood that they are only obeying orders.

DRIVE GOING VERY FINE

Those in Charge of the Campaign Are Well Satisfied With the Progress Made.

The Red Cross Drive for $10,000 started in this city Monday morning and when the books were closed Monday night it was found that $6,650 had been raised in one day and the committee is sure that the balance will be raised within the next two or three days. The people are responding most liberally and everyone seems anxious and willing to share in this great work of humanity. Judge Lewis Apperson made a contribution of $75 and a fine Duroc pig which was raffled off and brought $104. Mr. Robert Howell won him and gave him back to the committee. He was then raffled off for $100 and was won by Mr. Geo. Humphries who returned him and he was sold at auction bringing $35. Mr. John Richardson being the high bidder and he gave him back. He was then sold to J. W. Douglas who gave him back, H. R. Prewitt then paid $17 for him and gave him back and he was sold for $15.

Dr. W. B. Robinson donated a small pony which sold at auction for $63. Mr. T. J. Bigstaff gave a pair of fine pigs which sold at auction for $43. J. M. Huttsell donated a jennet which sold for $12. She was bought by C. W. Kirkpatrick who gave her back to the committee and was sold again to T. B. Hill for $5 and he gave her back and she then sold for $3, and Mr. Huttsell made a cash donation of $5. Mr. Nannie Holly gave a Collie dog which was sold several times and brought $5. Miss Irene McNamara gave a French Poodle which brought $3.50.

The colored cash contribution was $175.

Lack of space prevents our giving a complete list of the contributors but everyone solicited seemed ready to do their part.

Twelve Tire Tests No. 3

This series of twelve tests is designed to take the uncertainty out of tire-buying.

Traction-Surface

A non-skid tread, made up of comparatively small projections, cannot resist wear so well as a tire having a broad, flat traction-surface.

In considering the merits of various non-skids, determine how large a surface comes in actual contact with the road.

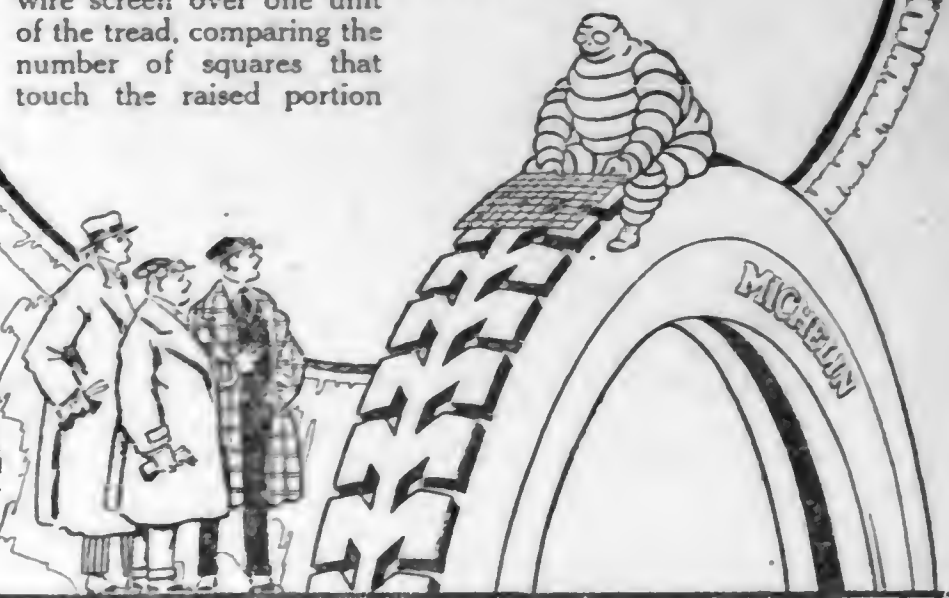

To do this, lay a piece of wire screen over one unit of the tread, comparing the number of squares that touch the raised portion with the number that cover the portion not raised.

In the Michelin Universal, for example, three-quarters of the entire non-skid tread comes in contact with the road, thus forming a broad, flat traction-surface that means extra service.

Yet Michelin Tires are not high priced.

Three-quarters of the Michelin Universal Tread is Traction-Surface.

SIGN PLEDGE TO GET
SUGAR FOR CANNING

Sugar consumers in Montgomery county will have to "sign the dotted line" in order to obtain sugar for canning and preserving, according to an order issued by the food administrator. Providing they sign a pledge handed them by their dealers housewives now may buy sugar needed for canning or preserving in quantities of 25 pounds and less. But the sugar must be used only for canning and preserving and it is against the rules for the housekeeper to buy more than she needs for this purpose.

JACK WINN GOES TO
OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP

John J. (Jack) Winn, of this city, left Tuesday for Camp Meade, Maryland, in compliance with orders to report there for the Fourth Training Camp for officers. Mr. Winn was attending Princeton University and was recommended by the Commandant as one of the quota of men allotted to that institution for the Training Camp. Mr. Winn took his examination and was given credit for the completion of his Junior year. He came home for a few days visit to his parents, Hon. and Mrs. John G. Winn, not knowing to what camp he would be assigned, but on his arrival here found orders to report at Camp Meade on May 15. Camp Meade is at Annapolis Junction, about half way between Washington and Baltimore. Mr. Winn has had several years training and study in a military school and is well qualified to make an admirable officer in Uncle Sam's army.

Byron D. Wood, who enlisted in the Navy, and went to Lexington for examination, was turned down on account of trouble with his eyes. He is in the draft from Boyd county, however, and will soon be called to the colors.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady.
Five Bottles of Cardui
Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time... I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Cardui, 'it's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles...After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my housework and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 76

ANNOUNCING ORGANIZATION OF

The Montgomery Oil Company

Incorporated

A home Company composed of Mt. Sterling men with head offices in Mt. Sterling; capitalized at $40,000 and offers a limited amount of stock at it's par value of

$1.00 A SHARE

This Company is the holder of 125 ACRES of land on the head waters of Bear Creek, in Lee county; next to the famous Primrose well. On two sides of this tract there are producing wells and a well is being drilled on the third side. Two of the best geologists in the Kentucky field pronounce this land to be exceptionally good with promise of vast production.

An option is also held on 800 acres of land in Northern Breathitt county also claimed by geologists to give every indication of oil bearing formations and in oil producing territory.

A further option is held on 75 acres between Billy's Fork and Little Sinking Creek, in Lee county, which is getting back close to big productions. The options on these latter properties will be exercised as soon as sufficient capital is raised from the sale of stock. Arrangements have already been taken care of for drilling on the Lee county property and actual development will begin within a few weeks. Nothing is certain in the oil business and the company does not desire to make it appear so, but confidently believes that it's prospects for success are very bright and that this stock will net a handsome return on any money invested in it.

The stock books are now open and subscriptions for same are being accepted. Further information will gladly be furnished by any officer or director of the company.

SEND ME AWAY WITH A SMILE

Little girl, don't cry; I must say good-by.
Don't you hear the bugle call?
And the fife and drum bid the fellows come,
Where the flag waves over all.
Though I love you so, it is time to go,
And a soldier in me you'll find.
When on land and sea they need
boys like me,
You would not have me stay behind.

Send me away with a smile, little
girl,
Brush the tears from eyes of brown:
It's all for the best, and I'm off with the rest
Of the boys from my own home town.
It may be forever we part, little
girl;
And it may be for only a while;
But if fight, dear, we must, in our
Maker we trust;
Send me away with a smile.

When I leave you dear, give me
words of cheer,
To recall in time of pain,
They will comfort me, and will seem to be
Like the sunshine after rain,
And 'mid shot and shell I'll remember well
You've the heart of a soldier, too,
And that through this war I am fighting for
My country and my home and you.

JUST A NEWSPAPER GUY

(By "Chink" Richmond)
I see a man push his way through the lines
Of cops where the work of the "fire-field" shines.
"The chief"? I inquired, but a fireman replies:
"Gee, no. Why, that's one of those newspaper guys."

I see a man walk through the door
of a show,
Where great throngs are blocked by the signs "S. R. O."
"Is this man the star that no ticket buys?"
"Star, nothing, he's one of those
newspaper guys."

I see a man start on a trail of a crook;
He scorns the police but he brings
him to book.
"Sherlock Holmes?" I inquire.
Someone scornfully cries:
"Sherlock hell—No, he's one of those newspaper guys!"

I see a man sit in a seat of the great,
And they ask his advice upon matters of state.
"A diplomat surely"—but, to my surprise,
They tell me he's one of those newspaper guys."

And some day I will stand by the great gates of gold
And see a man pass through unquestioned and bold,
"A Saint?" I'll ask, and Peter'll reply:
"No, he's only a plain, honest newspaper guy."

stock horse should be:
Fine, plenty of type and finish, good size, 15:3/4 hands high, weight 1150 pounds, splendid bone and foot, action absolutely straight and true in all five gaits, perfect disposition and a natural tailed horse, this feature being of importance to breeders, having never been worked on in any way. Color, rich dark chestnut.
As to his produce he has sired seven that brought an average of $1357, and an indefinite number that sold for four or five hundred. His colts mature into the right kind for using horses as well as for show, as they have intelligence and can quickly be made into either driving, combined five gaited or running-walk horses.

NOT MUCH OF A MAN!

He may be as rich as a millionaire,
Or a scion of noble name;
No sage with his wisdom may compare—
He may shine in the blaze of fame.
He may be the most marvelous thing in sight
That our humble eyes can scan,
But if his heart is not in our fight
He isn't much of a man!

He may be as square as the day is long
And just in his every deal.
He may seek the right and eschew the wrong
And to gods of all ages kneel.
He may be a saint in his holy ways,
Soul pure since his life began,
But if out of his country's war he stays,
He isn't much of a man!

A man may be true to his child and wife
And loyal to all mankind;
He may do no ill in his whole long life,
And yet, to his horror, find,
When no patriot fervor floods his breast
At the threat of a foeman's clan,
He lacks in that which, of all, is best,
He isn't much of a man!

—New York Times.

The only reminder one has of Christianity, of civilization or of brotherly love and human kindness, upon "no man's land" is the Red Cross Nurse, as she ministers to the bleeding and dying. That's why we hope with all our heart that Montgomery county will over-subscribe her quota in the present drive.

Instead of useless presents, why not give graduates thrift or war savings stamps?

MRS. MALONE AND THE CENSOR

When Mrs. Malone got a letter from Pat, she started to read it aloud in her flat.

"Dear Mary," it started, "I can't tell you much, I'm somewhere in France, and I'm fightin' the Dutch, I'm chokin' wid news shure I'd like to relate, But it's little soldier's permitted t' state. Do ye mind Red McPhee—well, he fell in a ditch And' busted an arm, but I can't tell ye which.

An' Paddy O'Harra was caught in a flame

An' resented by—Faith, I can't tell ye his name.

Last night I woke up wid a terrible pain,

I thought for awhile it would drive me insane.

Oh, the sufferin' I had was most dreadful t' bear!

I'm sorry, my dear, but I can't tell ye where.

The doctor he gave me a pill, but I find

It's contrary to rules t' discuss here the kind.

I've been t' the dintist an' had a tooth out.

I'm sorry t' leave you so shrouded in doubt

But the best I can say is that one tooth is gone,

The censor won't let me inform ye which one.

I met a young fellow who knows ye right well,

An' ye know him, too, but his name I can't tell.

He's Irish, red-headed, an' there with th' blarney,

His folks once knew your folks back home in Killarney."

By Gorry," said Mrs. Malone in her flat,

"It's hard t' make sense out av writin' like that.

But I'll give him as good as he sends, that I will."

So she went right to work with her ink well an' quill,

An' she wrote, "I suppose ye're dead eager for news,

You know when ye left we were buyin' the shoes;

Well, the baby has come, an' we're both doin' well.

It's a—, Oh, but that's somethin' they won't let me tell."

WHAT IS WORSE THAN WAR?

Consumption Four Times More Deadly Than Bombs and Machine Guns.

Pierre Hamp, a French medical authority, estimates that of the 3,000,000 people of all ages still living in France 4,000,000 must die of tuberculosis. The war will have killed about 1,000,000. This means that man with all of his inventiveness is far less efficient than Nature as a man killer. There have been over 400,000 new cases of consumption in France since the war began. This is why, despite the number of new hospitals, there is still not sufficient space available for tuberculosis cases.

The Question of Pensions. Of course first consideration is accorded to the ever popular wounded men. Therein lies the tragedy of the consumptive soldier. With the new cases coming in daily from the trenches the consumptives are not as helpless as the wounded men. When discharged from the army the severely wounded are allowed a pension by the government. The consumptives, however, receive no allowance unless they can prove that their illness is entirely due to their service in the army. This is not always a thing to do, and consequently comparatively few consumptives receive governmental assistance.

Until the American Red Cross began to extend its aid the plight of most of these men was often pitiful. When discharged from the hospital they are given certain instructions which would eventually bring them back to health. But conditions are hard. They are usually unable to earn much and so do not get proper or even sufficient nourishment. Very often they are in no condition to look after themselves, will less to safeguard the health of others. To meet this difficulty local committees have been formed to look after the discharged patients and see that they do not pass on their disease to members of their families. The task is well nigh hopeless. Even if proper living quarters are to be had sanitation and hygiene cannot be taught overnight. They sleep in air tight rooms, kiss their babies, drink out of the same cups and use the same towels as the rest of their families. In spite of these appalling difficulties, however, the rapid spread of the disease must—simply must—be checked. Even to attempt this would be an impossibility without the tremendous facilities and aid of the American Red Cross. No other agency could conceivably face, much less hope to accomplish, such a task.

HOT DRINKS FOR TIRED FIGHTERS

The Red Cross Rolling Canteen.

In six months the American Red Cross supplied a million French soldiers with hot coffee, tea, chocolate, bouillon, at the time they needed it most—just as they were entering the communication trenches for a tour of duty under boche fire or coming out, tired and worn, after their grueling vigil. If you were dragging the tired pair of feet in France through the mud, and if you were greeted by a cheery voice and a steaming pint of beef tea, wouldn't it be "a grand and glorious feeling"? Oh, boy!

Now, this is the work of the "rolling canteen," and some day a Kipling will sing "the story of the tanks"—tanks of broth and bouillon that the Red Cross "Special Front Line Service" trudges up to the lines. The Military Sanitary Service supplies the wagons and utensils. The Red Cross unit does the work. It supplies these hot drinks at a cost of 50 francs ($10) per thousand men, a cent apiece!

Think of that—the penny your little girl sends the Red Cross can buy a big hot cheering drink, a good natured greeting, for a fighting man who desperately needs just that! One penny!

Red Cross Rolling Canteens to the number of 15 are now behind the lines in continuous service. Their crews are exposed to shell fire and often have to put on gas masks.

Eugene Hale, brother of United States Senator Hale, served six months with a rolling canteen in France, and he says:

"While the men are glad to have the hot drinks, their chief satisfaction consists in the sense this service gives them of a friend being there with a helping hand in a critical hour."

And now the American army has asked the Red Cross to maintain this front line service directly in touch with the medical relief stations nearest the Yankee front and this the Red Cross is eager to do.

PACK YOUR EGGS NOW

Waste of Eggs Unpatriotic.
Egg specialists from the Kentucky Food and Drug Department and the United States Department of Agriculture are scheduled to be in Mt. Sterling on June 6 for the purpose of conducting a practical egg handling demonstration. This is free and open to all persons in the community who wish to learn the best methods in handling eggs.

The purpose of these demonstrations is to aid the farmers, buyers, and shippers in candling, packing, and grading of eggs so they may bring better prices and meet the requirements of the laws affecting the sales of eggs.

Estimates show a loss of over $3,000,000 each year in Kentucky due to poor handling of eggs. But more important than the money loss in food that is now needed for our people and our allies. Food will help win the war. Any person allowing food to spoil is unpatriotic. The demonstrators will show how this waste can be prevented and our food supply increased.

At this meeting which is one of a series being held throughout Kentucky, people attending will learn how to tell good, stale, heated and bad eggs by candling and how to make cheap yet satisfactory egg-candlers. Each visitor can do actual candling if he desires.

Posters will be placed, giving the exact time and place of the meeting. The men who are giving these demonstrations are W. G. Terrell, representing the Kentucky Food and Drug Department and Allen M. Barry of the Food Research Laboratory of the United States Department of Agriculture.

SUNDAY BIG DAY

FOR RED CROSS

Three monster meetings last Sunday to boost the Red Cross Drive demonstrated the fact that Montgomery county intends to "go over the top." At 2:30 in the afternoon at The Tabb Theatre, Hon. W. D. Cochran, of Maysville, delivered a magnificent patriotic address to white citizens. He was gracefully and eloquently introduced by Mr. T. J. Bigstaff. At the Court House at the same hour some six hundred colored people filled the Circuit Court room, and listened to a wonderfully graphic account of what is going on in the trenches of France by Capt. Walter Kilroy Harris, New South Wales, who has been four times wounded and decorated for distinguished service. The colored people were also addressed at this meeting by Rev. W. H. Brown, colored, Dr. Yeaman, and Rev. T. Benton Hill. The colored people have pledged a thousand dollars, and may do even better. They deserve great credit.

Capt. Harris spoke again at night to probably a thousand white people at The Tabb Theatre. His experiences were very interesting and his talk was well received. He is doing a wonderful work in this country and speaks of killing Germans as "a real pleasure."

Mr. T. J. Bigstaff and Rev. T. B. Hill, managers of the local drive for $10,000, are working like beavers day and night to reach the goal, and know no such word as failure.

PUBLIC AUCTION

Mr. Hughes Atkinson has given a pig by his $500 boar to the Red Cross. This pig will be sold at public auction Saturday, May 25 at 3 p. m. Every dollar that the pig brings will go to the Red Cross fund.

TOO MANY KINDS OF FARM MACHINERY

Nearly 2,000 types and sizes of farm implements which have been gradually developed by manufacturers during peace times competition have been recommended for elimination during the war by committees of the National Implement and Vehicle Association. The object, according to a statement by the Council of National Defense, is to conserve materials, labor, capital, and manufacturing facilities for war use.

In the report of the committee meetings to the commercial economy board of the Council of National Defense it was stated that no machinery recommended for discard was believed to be necessary to modern economical agriculture. The lines considered by the committees consisted of steel and chilled plows, grain drills, seeders, and other tillage implements and farm elevators.

Such of the recommendations as the board deems suitable, with others from different sources, are being brought to the attention of all implement manufacturers and jobbers, and as many retail dealers as may be reached, through questionnaires.

CLIPPINGS FROM THE SNAGTOWN TORCHLIGHT

Captain Edward William Miller, editor of the Plunkville Patriot, has written a heavy editorial again flirtn' on the public streets. He is right. It is simply scandalous the way the mashers and dudes are walking over the main streets of Snagtown. Experts tell us flirtn' is caused by a germ, but it can be kept off the main street. The editor of the Torchlight flirtned with a woman when her husband was along, and he happened to be lookin' the other way, but one't he wasn't looking the way we thought he wuz, and that's why we cut it out altogether. Two-thirds of our women are kicking about the fact they can't go out on the main thoroughfare all toggled up without being flirtned with. The editor of this paper suggests the organization of a Society for the Prevention and Elimination of Flirts and he nominates himself as president of said organization and accepts the nomination.

ONLY A RUMOR—Last week, while this paper was left temporarily in charge of the horse editor, he inserted an item to the effect that we had gone over to Hot Water Springs to capture a $40,000 widow. We beg to announce that our horse editor is wrong. The $40,000 widow turned out to be a plain every day widow with less than two hundred plunks hidden away in an old teapot on the top shelf of the pantry. We had no proposition to make. As editor of the Torchlight, we are straight business. The drop from $40,000 to $200 was a little too much for us.

A tinhorn gambler came to town the other day and blew himself out of his tin.

The postmaster, Sol Batavia, is expecting a new supply of stamps within a few days. He has only one left in stock, and Miss Bertha Brown was over looking at it yesterday.

Bobbie Rodia says it always quits raining when the clouds begin to tighten up.

Your house, like your body, must be protected from the weather if it is not to suffer from sudden changes. When you buy a coat for yourself, you carefully select the material, note how it's made, how it looks, how it's going to wear. Be as particular about the coat of paint you buy for your house.

Regulate Your Kidneys

The kidneys and liver are the body's organs to carry off waste and poison. When they don't work, bad health follows, and unless you take care of yourself, disease may follow beyond the power of medicine to cure.

Because of the seriousness of these diseases, you should take Vin Hepatica, the universal system purifier, at the earliest sign of any trouble with bowels or liver. This great nature medicine is composed of eight of the most powerful curative herbs, and the certainty with which they restore kidneys, the liver and bowels to natural, healthy action is attested by thousands who have been helped, when all other remedies and treatment proved valueless.

F. M. Cawthorn, a prominent farmer and stockman of Mt. Juliet, Tenn., says that after taking Vin Hepatica he felt like a wagon that had been oiled up and put in fine running condition.

We know that Vin Hepatica is a remedy of real worth. We invite you to come in and get a bottle. It will surely help you.

The Leonard Cleanable ONE-PIECE PORCELAIN LINED REFRIGERATOR

Can be cleaned in five minutes

You Can't Have Clean Food Unless You Have a Clean Refrigerator—

YOU wouldn't of course, eat anything but clean food. Yet food cannot be clean that has been in an unsanitary refrigerator. A bad odor in your refrigerator is always a danger signal.

Zinc or galvanized iron linings for refrigerators are unsanitary. Even though coated with white paint or enamel, they soon get stained and discolored. Worse still, cracks and scratches develop which fill with grease and food particles. Thus germs are fostered causing a most unsanitary condition.

A Leonard Cleanable is made with a one-piece porcelain lining, smooth, pure white, everlasting, just like a piece of china, except that it is unbreakable. This porcelain you cannot possibly scratch, not even with a steel knife blade. It has no cracks or crevices in which grease or germs may collect. It is as clean as a china dish and as easily kept clean. Notice how the Porcelain Lining of the door is made in one piece. Look for the trade-mark shown below.

For your family's sake, learn about the Leonard Cleanable. We want to tell you its many good qualities. Call and get an interesting booklet, "The Care of Refrigerators." It contains many good points you ought to know.

MEMORIAL DAY TO BE DAY OF PRAYER

The President has issued a proclamation setting aside May 30th as a day of public humiliation, fasting and prayer.

The proclamation, after reciting the resolution by Congress asking the President to appoint such a day is as follows:

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the 30th day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, and do exhort my fellow citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their several places of worship and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that he may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things that are just and right, and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with his will; beseeching him that he will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity, and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost in support of what is just and true, bringing us at last the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will."

INTERESTING LETTER

WRITTEN IN A "DUGOUT"

Below we reproduce a most interesting letter from Mr. H. Benj. Scott, popular young gentleman of this city, and son of Policeman and Mrs. Thomas Scott:

"April 20, 1918.

Somewhere in France

"In my Dugout—

"Dear Father and Family:

"I am at leisure this p. m. for a little while so I will devote the time in telling you all I can. I received your letter and was glad to know that you were all in good health.

"Thanks to Miss Lyda, Ruth and Tommy, Jr. for the box. It reached me in very good condition owing to long trip and the roughness in which it is handled causes it to become slightly mutilated, the sausage was fine after two fellows and myself fried it in our mess-kit, and take it from me we sure had some eats in our dugout.

Well Dad, I am new in active service and things are some different. We used to eat and go to sleep by the sounding of a bugle but—now we do things by the bursting of H. E.'s. It is funny to see us—we will be eating our dinner and along comes one of these nice big 14 inchers sent to us by our dear friends "Bosch" to let us know that they are in the land of the living—and then comes the mad mess-kit rush for the dugout. It is real fun when we all arrive safely in the dugout and start eating our meal and someone yells out they are damned bad shots fellows. Of course if we didn't take things in a joking way we would die from worrying. It is hard to keep some or them from worrying at that.

"How is Aunt J. getting along? I hope she is well by now. Tell Jim I will write him the first opportunity I have—it is pretty hard for us to find writing material and time, so you must all consider that I don't get a chance to write very often.

"I hope you can see in the paper what we are doing in this big game, we sure are doing things to be proud of, but I think it is forbidden to publish anything about any certain outfit.

"I am getting along fine, and you all need not worry about me, for you will be notified immediately—but, nothing is going to happen to me, for I figure none of these "Boschs" have anything on me and I am going to try and beat them to it. All the fellows are in good spirits and are "rearing to go."

"Give my regards to all the fellows, I won't take up any extra space mentioning names—but you know those that would probably be interested in my whereabouts.

haven't received any Mt. Sterling papers for a long time. I can't figure what is wrong with them.

"I had a nice letter from Joe Scott and he invited me out to see him when I return. He likes his new home.

"Dad, I am going to send you a picture I had taken while I was on my trip to Aix-Les-Bains. This is one of the many girls of France to whom the war has brought grief, her brother was killed in the 1914 battle of Verdun. She now has several cousins in the army. The women of France are to be congratulated on the noble way they have stood these four years of destruction.

"I hope you are all well and happy and that I can soon come sailing home—and once more be happy.

"With love to all.

"Your affectionate son,
Corp. H. B. Scott,
Co. M., 9th U. S. Inf."

NOTICE TO MERCHANTS AND CONSUMERS

As many people are neglecting to live up strictly to the law regulating the consumption of flour to six pounds per month to each member of their family, the following notice is hereby given to both merchant and consumer. On and after May 27th all merchants will be required to give their customer a signed statement showing how much flour was sold them and the date of the purchase and before any more flour can be purchased it will be necessary for the consumer to deliver this certificate to a merchant when he desires to purchase flour again. This will not enable the consumer to purchase from any other merchant in order to evade the law, but must be delivered to any merchant from whom a purchase is made.

A person now having a supply of flour on hand and when this supply has become exhausted may secure the proper amount of flour for their consumption by making a statement to the effect that they had made no purchase since May 27th. This may seem to be a hardship on the merchant and the consumer but remember, these are war times and we must all do our bit. Surely if the boys "over yonder" are willing to give up their lives we should be willing to accept any regulations necessary for their support.

MANY INSTRUMENTS NEEDED FOR FIGHTING PLANES

Before an airplane can be put into military service it must be equipped with at least nine delicate aeronautic instruments, some of which are absolutely essential to exact flying, and all contribute to the successful operation of a plane. One gives the pilot his location as to height and direction; others tell his speed through the air, the speed of his propeller, the amount of gasoline carried, water temperature, operation of the oiling system, and guide his "banking" on turns. Another necessary article is the oxygen-supplying apparatus, without which an aviator could not climb to any great height.

For operation of actual combat planes, such as observing, photographing, bombing, and fighting planes, other complicated and expensive instruments and sets of apparatus are necessary. Among them are machine guns, gun mounts, bomb racks, bomb-dropping devices, bomb sights, radio and photographic apparatus, electrically heated clothing, lights and flares. These bring the total cost of equipment for an airplane to several thousand dollars each, depending upon the type of plane.

I HAVE A SON

By Emory Pottle

I have a son who goes to France Tomorrow.

I have clasped his hand—
Most men will understand—
And wished him, smiling, lucky chance
In France.

My son!

At last the house is still—
Just the dog and I in the garden—dark—

Stars and my pipe's red spark—
The house his young heart used to fill is still.

He said, one day; "I've got to go
To France—Dad, you know how I feel!"

I knew Like sun and steel
And morning. "Yes," I said; "I know
You'll go."

I'd waited just to hear him speak
Like that.

God, what if I had had
Another sort of lad, Something too soft, too meek and weak

To speak!

And yet—
He could not guess the blow
He'd struck.

Why, he's my only son!
And we had just begun
To be dear friends. But I dared not show

The blow.

But now—tonight—
No, no; it's right;

I never had a righter thing
To bear. And men must fling Themselves away in the grieving sight

Of right.

A handsome boy—but I, who knew
His spirit—well, they can not murder the cleanness of a star
That'll shine to me, always and true
Who knew.

I've given him.

Yes, and had I more
I'd give them too—for there's a love
That asking asks above

The human measure of our store—
And more.

Yes; it hurts!

Here in the dark, alone—
No one to see my wet old eyes—
I'll watch the morning rise—
And only God shall hear my groan
Alone.

I have a son who goes to France
Tomorrow.

I have clasped his hand—
Most men will understand—
And wished him, smiling, lucky chance

In France.

NEWS OF THE MOVIES

The famous old Garden Theatre in New York was used for the staging of the important scenes in "An American Widow," a Metro Wonderplay starring Ethel Barrymore, which will be the attraction at the Tabb tonight.

The "Tower of Babel" will be shown in a mammoth production in "Draft 268," Metro's special production deluxe, which will be shown at the Tabb on Friday, May 24th. The structure was erected at a great expense and was torn down after having been in actual use less than half a day. Every phase of the vari-colored life of Asin Minor in the days of 2227 B. C. is pictured. "Draft 258" is one of the most ambitious photodramas ever offered to the American public and is the logical successor to Metro's other great patriotic photodrama, "The Slacker."

Grace D'Armond is one of the brilliant screen artists signed late last year to a long term contract to star in Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Features. She is one of the youngest stars in motion pictures today. She is splendidly cast in "The Other Man," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature which will be the attraction at the Tabb on Saturday. Hurry Morey has the leading male role.

GREEN RIVER ANTHOLOGY

Well, Bo, I've gotta say goodby,
let's have a partin' drink,
For I and you has been good friends
—some better than you think;
We've bummed around together, while your wife and kids were home—

I made you see that life was nothing but a fluffy foam.

I've lead you into many scrapes—
in fact I've done you wrong—
But always did I give you company, laughter, women, song!

God, man! How you fought me in the times we've been about!

You couldn't lick me; better men than you and I have put out;

And all the time you passed up home and lost your job for me

Because you loved me, hated me, because you couldn't see

That I was simply vamping you to down you in the end—

I gave you warmth, false cheer, but
Bo, I never was your friend!

LOAFERS MUST GO TO WORK

New Law Requires All From Ages of 16 to 60 to Work at Least 36 Hours Per Week.

"Why stand ye here idle?" This question is on the tongues of the police officers of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county. When on June 20 the law becomes effective which was passed by the State Legislature and requires all able bodied men between the ages of 16 and 60 to work 36 hours a week, the query will be asked of all who take their ease.

There is to be no more rest for the habitually weary. The leisure class on and after that eventful June 20, will become "wanted by the police." The hum of the tuncful idler must give way to the hum of industry. The setting sun of the sitting son of Mt. Sterling, is at hand. And woe be unto the man who writes another Apology for Idlers.

With the effectiveness of the new statute, officials say they intend to eliminate vagrancy.

Another phase is presented in the matter. "Idle" is a German word—the dictionary gives its derivation from the Teutonic "eitel." And idling is a pro-German activity—or rather inactivity. The State law says this. The Council of National Defense has begun steps for its prevention. The police officials of county and city are present to enforce the law and heads of the departments stated that this would be done to the utmost.

County Judge Earl W. Senff says that no efforts will be spared in the campaign to have all men and the big boy loafers about town and in the county engage in some labor, as a wartime necessity.

Heretofore the vagrancy violation only referred to persons with no visible means of support. Now money is no object, but work is, the officials say. The rich and poor, old and young, high and low, must work just the same.

From June 20, there will be but two classes of men, according to the new law—workers and shirkers. And for sins of omission the same penalty must be paid the same as for sins of commission.

TEXT OF THE NEW LAW

Following is the text of the State law, which gives full facts concerning the requirements made of all able bodied men during the period of the war:

"Section 1. It is hereby declared to be the duty of every able bodied male resident of this State, between the ages of 16 and 60 years, to habitually and regularly engage in some lawful, useful and recognized business, profession or employment, whereby he may produce or earn sufficient support for himself and those dependent on him.

"Section 2. From the time this act becomes effective, and thenceforward until six months after the termination of the present war, between the United States of America and the Imperial German Government, all able bodied male residents of this State between the ages of 16 and 60 except bona-fide students during school term, who shall refuse to regularly engage for at least 36 hours per week in some lawful or recognized business, profession, occupation or employment, whereby he may contribute to the support of himself and those legally dependent upon him, shall be held to be a vagrant within the meaning and effect of this act and shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction the defendant shall be fined not less than $30 or more than $100 for each offense. As a part of such punishment and sentence such offender shall be by the trial court forced to work not exceeding 60 days upon the public roads, or upon some other public work being done by and in this county in which persons shall be convicted, or by any municipality therein. One-half the fair value of any such labor so performed under such sentence shall be paid by such county or municipality receiving the same towards the support of any person legally dependent upon such legal dependents, then no payment shall be made on account of any labor performed under such judgment. Any labor so required by a judgment or conviction hereunder shall be rendered in all respects as now provided by law in the case of prisoners in jail. Prosecutions hereunder shall be instituted and conducted as other criminal prosecutions and in no case shall the possession by the accused of money, property or income sufficient to support himself and those legally dependent upon him be a defense to any prosecution under this act. In no case shall the claim by the accused of inability to obtain work or employment be a defense to a prosecution hereunder.

"Section 3. All county judges, justices of peace, mayors and police judges within the State are hereby given jurisdiction to try and punish all offenders under this act, or such prosecutions may be by indictment. Each week or portion thereof that such resident shall continue a vagrant hereunder shall constitute a separate offense and no appeal shall be allowed from any judgment or conviction for vagrancy, unless the accused shall give bond, with penalty and security fixed and approved by the court granting the appeal, continued not to violate this act during the pendency of such appeal. Any judgment for the performance of labor hereunder may be suspended by the court pronouncing the same, upon the execution, by the person convicted of a bond, with the penalty and security approved by the court, conditioned to comply with provisions of this act for one year from the date of such last mentioned bond shall entitle the State to recover the amount of the penalty thereof and in addition thereto the convicted person shall be re-arrested and required to serve the sentence formally pronounced against him.

"Section 4. For the purpose of this act any male person found in this State shall be deemed a resident, and in any prosecution hereunder proof that the accused habitually loiterers in idleness in streets, roads, depots, pool rooms, hotels stores or other public places further duty of such police to summon or that he is habitually intoxicated, or is addicted to the use of narcotic
